FTA negotiations

Canada

Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement (CETA) has been signed by the EU and Canada on 30 October 2016 and has entered into force provisionally on 21 September 2017.

Since provisional entry into force most of the agreement already applies. Areas that are not yet in force are investment protection and the investment court system (ICS), portfolio investment market access, provisions on camcording and two provisions related to the transparency of administrative proceedings, review and appeal at Member State level. The agreement will take full effect once all EU Member States have formally ratified it.

Its full text and annexes are available on DG Trade website:

<http://ec.europa.eu/trade/policy/in-focus/ceta/ceta-chapter-by-chapter/>

Tariff elimination

The EU and Canada have agreed to eliminate customs duties for the import of goods originating in the EU and Canada, either when CETA comes into force, or gradually within 3, 5 or 7 years for almost all goods.

Rules of Origin

Rules of origin ensure that CETA preferential tariff rates benefit EU and Canadian production. In order to take full advantage of CETA preferential tariff rates, traders will need to fulfil the rules of origin defined in the
