

Biography Gregory Van Bellinghen

Gregory Van Bellinghen is Managing Partner of Toppako Capital.

Gregory Van Bellinghen is Managing Partner/Founder of Toppako Capital, a private equity fund management company with offices in Belgium, Tokyo and Hong Kong supporting European companies to accelerate their growth in Asia. He spent 12 years in Asia mainly in Beijing and Tokyo. He started his career at Euroclear in Brussels. In 2007 he moved to China where he first joined the European Union Chamber of Commerce in China and then later the Asian Development Bank in Beijing as an economist for regional cooperation before venturing into private equity for the last 10 years. He holds a master of Applied Economics from the KU Leuven and a post post-graduate degree of Sociology and Politics from the Universite Libre de Bruxelles. He is a father of 3 boys, a passionate photographer and collector of contemporary photography. He is fluent in French, Dutch, English and Spanish.